

7th International Safflower Conference
WAGGA WAGGA AUSTRALIA

General Information

Wagga Wagga

Wagga is the local Wiradjuri aboriginal word for crow and to create the plural, the Wiradjuri repeat the word. Thus Wagga Wagga translates as 'the place of many crows'. Wagga Wagga's unusual name has led many to believe it is a mythical city!!

Climate

In November the average minimum temperature in Wagga Wagga is 11°C and the average maximum is 25°C.

Conference Dress Code

The Conference dress code is neat casual, individual social event dress codes are listed on the following pages.

Smoking Policy

The Conference has a 'No-Smoking' policy.

Mobile Telephones and Pagers

Participants are asked to ensure all mobile phones are switched off during Conference sessions.

Accommodation Accounts

All accommodation accounts must be settled on checkout. This includes all mini bar and incidental costs.

Special Dietary Requirements

If you have not as yet advised the Conference organizers of any special requirements, please check at the Registration Desk.

Audio Visual

All keynote speakers and oral presenters will need to load their PowerPoint presentations prior to their presentation. If you have not as yet provided your presentation to the Conference organizers please see the Registration Desk.

Accompanying People

All accompanying people are welcome to attend social functions at their own cost. Tours of local interest can be organized on request, please see the Registration Desk.